

2805, f. 5 v (5B)

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a medieval manuscript. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be in a different script or dialect than others, possibly indicating a mix of languages or a specific regional dialect. The ink is dark and the parchment shows signs of age and wear.

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or a specific heading, written in a cursive script.

Handwritten text, possibly a date or a specific reference, written in a cursive script.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a fragment of a letter or document. The text is written on a piece of aged, yellowish paper with some staining and wear. The script is dense and difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the image quality. The text appears to be a mix of letters and symbols, possibly representing a specific dialect or a shorthand system. The fragment is roughly rectangular and is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the page.
